

307 Uxbridge Road, Acton, London W3 9QU

Guide Price: £695,000*

FREEHOLD MIXED INVESTMENT PROPERTY

The property is a mid-terraced dwelling consisting of a lock up commercial unit that is trading as a restaurant. There is a self-contained flat above over three floors which is accessed from a separate door to the front elevation. We understand that there is also a basement that offers storage space for the restaurant. The property appears to be in a reasonable condition although it does require some updating. The property is located in an ever popular area within walking distance of Acton High Street. The property is let with an original lease that commenced on 4th June 1993 and was subsequently varied and extended on 16th December 2011 for a period until 15th December 2031. There is an agreement entered into for a License to Underlet from the 16th December 2011. The passing rent agreed in the original lease was £12,000 pa and this is for the whole premises. Ealing Broadway and Shepherds Bush inclusive of Westfield Shopping Centre are served by the Uxbridge Road. Acton Main Line Station is within one mile and good road links serve the area such as the A40 Western Avenue. The property is located close to the junction of Denehurst Gardens.

ACCOMMODATION
